

Your Helpful Advice Can Earn You A Reward!

All you have to do is help me find the people that I'm looking for.

Who are these people? Homeowners, just like you, that may need some improvements or repairs. Especially if they have rotting siding, want to save on energy costs or are looking to add value to their home.

We want to reward our best form of advertising – YOU!! Your referral* is worth a check for $104⁵⁹.

And you earn a check for every referral* you give us. No limit!

Do you know someone that needs:

- New or replacement siding?
- New windows to cut down energy costs?
- A new, custom deck?
- To protect their home with new paint?

We've done a good job for you a while back. Help us find others that need our help.

Just Call
Coddington Construction
(888) 388-0151

* A successful referral requires the homeowner to agree to and sign a written contract for services and pay their initial deposit. A check will be sent to the referring person within one business day of contract acceptance.

Front

Only the extremely wealthy can afford to make a poor contracting decision... because they have the money to do it over again.

The 4 P's of Owner Protection

PROBLEMS

What are the problems that are causing the need for construction?

PRODUCTS

What products and procedures solves these problems?

PEOPLE

Who is the contractor to install the products and how do you qualify him?

PRICE

How do you determine if the price quoted is fair and competitive?

Things To Remember When Selecting A Contractor

- Automatically reject any contractor without a permanent place of business.
- Automatically reject any contractor without substance.
- Automatically reject any contractor without proper and adequate insurance.
- Automatically reject any contractor who is not licensed.
- Automatically reject any contractor who blows off your questions as not being important. There are probably a lot of other issues he deems not important and will blow off, maybe one being your satisfaction.
- Automatically reject any contractor who can not provide a reference list of customers.
- Automatically reject any contractor who says they never had a complaint. The best of contractors find themselves in disputes for one reason or another.
- Automatically reject any contractor with an unbelievable warranty. The warranty is just a sales tool to that contractor and you don't know what other "bill of goods" you have been sold.
- Automatically reject any contractor who refuses to allow you to modify his proposal in order to clarify specifications to a mutually fair understanding.

Inside

- Siding Specialist
- Custom Decks
- Windows & Doors
- Painting

Coddington Construction, Inc. has over 14 years of experience serving our clients throughout the Northwest with well over 2,000 homeowners that we can provide as references.

Coddington Construction, Inc. is a full-service provider of residential and commercial construction. We have a reputation for complete customer satisfaction and on-time, on-budget completion of a wide variety of construction projects.

“Our mission at Coddington Construction is simple and straightforward — we're in the business of providing homeowners with the very best home improvement investment.

We make sure the client's project is financially and structurally sound. We invest in our people by training them in their field of work.

The people of Coddington Construction are the best of the best. They're the quality in what we do.

The longer we are in business, the greater value we are to our customers and employees. We exist for both our customers and our employees.”

Ken Coddington

Coddington Construction, Inc.
205 C Street NW
Auburn, WA 98001

General Contractor – CODDICI027RH

(888) 388-0151

James Hardie® Siding Products

Back